fused to allow the British fleet to approach Constantinople. A Cabinet Conneil was hastily summoned this morning.' The London Central News says :- "Negotiations are still proceeding for obtaining a fitman. The whole British fleet remains in Besika Bay pending the result of the negotiations."

MISCELLANEOUS. The insurgents in Epirus have proclaimed union with Greece. The main body of the Greek army has returned to Lanira.

The recall of the troops from Thessaly and Epirus has caused much public indignation .-The Government considers the situation still oritical, and has ordered arms and ammunition sufficient for 50,000 men. The mobile guard is to be raised to 140,000 men.

The Rome Italie yesterday appounced that it had received alarming news respecting the health of General Garibaldi, and the Opinione confirms the report that he is il!, but intelligence has been received that his condition is somewhat improved.

The rumor that the Marquis of Hartington has resigned the Liberal leadership in the British House of Commons, is denied. A dispatch from Cape Town says :- A gencral advance was made against the enemy on January 15th, which was completely successful. Ten thousand cattle and fifteen thousand sheep were captured. The Kaffirs lost heavily .-Transkei is completely cleared of the enemy.

After a funeral service for the late King Victor Emmanuel at Florence, on Saturday, an orsini boolorsini bomb was thrown among the returning crowd. Five persons were slightly wounded. The police with difficulty prevented the lynching of the person who threw the bomb who is probably insane.

The Council adopted resolutions of respect to his memory.

THE SHINN CASE. - The Corporation Court, this morning took up the fourth indictment against George R. Shinn, for embezzlement. The indictment charges him with the embezzlement use and larceny of $91, the property of the Alexandria Co operative Building Association. The defense demurred to the indictment and every count thereof, and the Court over ruled the demurer; to which the defendant excepted. A jury was, ofter some little difficulty, obtained, and the opening statements of counsel were made. The hearing of the evidence was then commenced and was in progress when this report closed.

Police ITEMS .- There were no cases at the Mayor's office either yesterday or to day. Justice Padgett had before him Lewis Green and Link Johnson, both colored, for stealing chickens from John R. Gray, who were senteneed to receive twenty lashes each. Martha Oden, colored, for receiving the chickens, knowing them to have been stolen, was sentenced to ten days' confinement in jail.

James Pearson, colored, for abusing his sister, was dismissed for want of evidence, and he costs assessed against the complainant.

News of the Day.

Archbishop Gibbons, the new Archbishop of Baltimore, was yesterday invested at the Cathedral with the pallium, the distinctive emblem of his office. Although the ceremony, in consequence of the death of the Pontiff, was horn of many of the surroundings which usually accompany such an occasion, still it was of a very imposing character, and many dignitaries of the Church from various parts of the country

Mrs. McGinnes, wife of a freight conductor, and her daughter aged 21, were killed on Sat-turday by a freight train on the Baltimore and Ohic Railroad, near Keyser. They were walk-ing on the track, and the engineer of the train knew nothing of the occurrence until their mutilated remains were discovered. Mrs. McGinnes resided at Keyser, and leaves nine children.

A fight occurred yesterday in a disreputable house in Philadelphia, in which Emma Brown was stabbed and William Rowan killed by a stab penetrating the heart. All the parties in the house were arrested, but the murderer, a man named Valentine, had escaped previously. The wounds of the woman are supposed to be

A resolution was adopted looking to the relief of the colored mutes in the State; also a resolution as to whether the duties of the county superintendent of schools may not be dispensed with, or so distributed amongst the other school officers of of the State as to be more economical ly performed. The Barbour tax bill was then taken up and Mr. Barbour concluded the debate. Mr. Barbour spoke for two hours, and he answered the objections urged against the bill, and argued In the House of Representatives the bill for footing, it will save the State from the repudiation that has been going on for years, and will guarantee to the public free schools all of the revenues they are constitutionally entitled to.

Mr. Carter of Northampton moved to strike out 50 cents in the preamble and insert 60. Rejected. The bill was then ordered to be engrossed, ayes 71—noes 40—and then passed, by the same vote, Mr. Mushbach being recorded in the negatative; Mr. Hunter not voting. The bill will reach the Senate to-day, the Finance Committee of which body, some days ago reported adversely to a simular bill introduced there.

STEPPING STONE TO HEALTH, -The acquisition of vital energy is the stepping stone to health. When the system lacks vitality, the various organs flag in their duty, become chronically irregular, and disease is eventually instituted. To prevent this unhappy state of things, the debilitated system should be built up by the use of that inimitable tonic, Hostetter's Stor ach Bitters, which invigorates the digestive A petition has been presented in the Senate, by Mr. Spencer, from the employees of the Washington Navy Yard, asking that they may be placed on the same footing with other Government of public holidays.
